WELCOME TO DIAR 2017

Dubai International Arabian Races (DIAR), under the patronage of HH Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum, aims to enable more people to enjoy the sport of Arabian horse racing and to help more countries develop the sport internationally, through its sponsorship and support. To help achieve this, DIAR organises a series of races around the world each year.

The DIAR 2017 offers a programme of 18 'Preparation Races' to encourage international runners to Dubai International Arabian Races flagship event at Newbury Racecourse on Sunday 30th July 2017. This event is one of the best and most prestigious full days of Purebred Arabian racing anywhere in the world. It features five international races, including three Group 1 PA races and a Group 2 PA race.

In 2017, DIAR's sponsorship starts with races in Italy in May, then the UK, Sweden, France and the Netherlands. Most significantly, 2017 will see a £13,000 increase in prize money for DIAR Newbury, as well as the renewal of the travel allowances for international runners competing on that day.

The bonus scheme is now well established in the DIAR programme: horses that finish first, second or third in any of the 'Preparation Races' will be eligible to compete for a bonus at DIAR Newbury on Sunday 30 July 2017. Dubai International Arabian Races welcomes you and looks forward to your support and participation in 2017!

"It's probably the biggest day of Arabian racing in the world - I can't think of anything that can rival it."

Horses must be shod all round, unless special dispensation has been granted by the BHA.

"To participate at the DIAR races was amazing. The organisation was perfect. The travel allowance encouraging. I was lucky to win with Urge Di Gallura, the only horse to win the bonus in 2017."
