RACE SUMMARY

A race that revolves around Pharitz Lahia who in an unusual turn of events is well in here despite being out of the handicap, having beat three of these off level weights last week. If she is in the same form she will be tough to beat. Of the others the market can guide for newcomer Ashj'aa and down in grade Jeewan is respected. A chance is taken on GHAYAH who shaped with promise last week and despite being over a stone worse off at the weights with Pharitz Lahia might be capable of reversing that form.
