RACE SUMMARY

A wide-open handicap with the usual mix of solid handicappers and unexposed youngsters. Nothing can be confidently ruled out. Jeewan likes it here and will give them something to try and catch. Pharitz Lahia returns from a small break and if in the same form as she was in June is probably the one to beat. Whilst Zayin Sentinel has shown enough to think he can win off this mark. The pick though is top weight IZENTERISKY who is very lightly raced for his age and returns to handicap company off a competitive mark with conditions to suit.

		Very lightly raced for his age and has a good strike rate. Won over this trip under this rider last season and ran well as could've been expected against three higher rated Horses on his return. Strong claims. (R6 W3 P2) (OR 80)

		Dual course winner over further who's dropped down to a fair mark. Has given it a good go from off the front on his last three starts and it's highly likely those tactics will be employed again here to bring out his stamina. Tough to rule out as he should get the run of the race. (R23 W3 P10) (OR 72)

		Finished behind Jeewan at the beginning of the month on his debut. This trip will suit better, and he should've learned plenty from that. From a late maturing family and makes his handicap debut off a workable mark so progression is likely. (R1 W0 P1) (OR 70)

		Sizeable Gelding who was last seen finishing down the field in the UK Arabian Derby at Doncaster. Back into much calmer waters here and should go close if he can reproduce the form of his previous run. (R5 W0 P2) (OR 62)
	5	PHARITZ LAHIA (GB) (53) 665-53255	6	8-4	(6)

		Pharitz Racing		Mrs B Aashour
		Beverley Deutrom		P
		At her best when positively ridden. Was second in a Listed race at Windsor in June but hasn't backed that up on two subsequent runs but did have excuses. Has the best piece of single form so if in the mood she should go close. (R12 W0 P3) (OR 56) (oh3)
	6	SASSY (GB) (34) 411-53564	8	8-4	(2)

		Mr Stephen Blackwell		P
		Won over this distance at this meeting last year off a three-pound lower mark. Has been running well without threatening to get her head in front this season and wasn't far behind Zayin Sentinel last month. Slightly out of the weights here but should get this run to suit so can't rule out for a rider she gets on well with. (R19 W3 P8) (OR 56) (oh5)
